RUSSIA BRACES FOR NEW ATTACK

The following errata in GRAUSTARKS #50 and #51 are to be corrected:

#50: For TURKEY: F Gro-Alb road A Gro-Alb

#51: For TURKEY: F Gro S A Alb road A Gro S A Alb

#51: The RUSSIAN move F Bot-St.P should be underlined, as that move is stood off by the ENGLISH move F Bar-St.P.

Players were notified of these corrections where vital to the progress of the game, and the following establishments and removals are made in Winter 1903:

ENGLAND: Establishes A Liv.

ITALY: Establishes F Nap.

FRANCE: Establishes F Bro.

RUSSIA: Establishes A Mos, ~~A St.P.~~, A Sev

GERMANY: Removes A Bol

THE DEADLINE FOR SPRING 1904 MOVES IS SATURDAY ~~15~~ MAY 1965.

LIVERPOOL: The newly formed English Second Army will soon take up defensive positions in Yorkshire.

LONDON: The English government has issued a "notice of intent to keep France free". It is rumoured that German forces will not move against France due to England's staunch support of her embattled ally, France. Vive la France!

ROME: A violent strike by Local 69 of the TransItaly Communications Union, IFofL-CIO, was blamed for the national disaster of last fall. The local, which seems to have been infiltrated by Turkish nationals, has been since officially outlawed, as have been most other unions in the country excluding of course Wholly Union. Many of the swine who operated the Italian unions have since departed for America in search of easy marks. It is expected that most will make large sums of money there one way or another and some will even become famous. The Italian armed forces, meanwhile, have been declared a disaster area and at the recommendation of a select committee, have been offered for sale. Tenders are now being accepted; the highest bidder will not necessarily be chosen but he has a good chance. It is reported that a museum of world history has entered a bid of 28 lire.

Dan Brannan has announced the establishment of yet more postal Diplomacy games in his bulletin Wild 'n' Woolly, which might better be titled Hot 'n' Heavy. Since last reports in GRAUSTARK #46, he has begun the following new games. (The figures in parentheses represent my notation for these games, as explained in GRAUSTARK #11.): 1965KY (1965G), 1965KN (1965H). This makes 5 games now on Mr. Brannan's hands. Mirabile dictu, he is soliciting yet more, at $3 an entry. Wild 'n' Woolly is 20 issues for $1 from him at 166 South Edgemont, Los Angeles, Calif. 90004.

Other new postal diplomacy games are 1965E in Massif (John Koning, 318 S. Belle Vista, Youngstown, Ohio 44509) and 1965F in Costaguana (Conrad von Metzko, 5327 Hilltop Drive, San Diego Calif. 92114). Both 'zines are 10 issues for $1, and the latter still has room for more players. GRAUSTARK is available at the same price from John Boardman, 592 16th St., Brooklyn, N. Y. 11218.
